

MESSAGE FROM NCCF PRESIDENT JEFF GORDON

Back To Bald!

As a cancer survivor, I lost my hair once...it's now time to "Klip it for Kidz!!!"

Comprehensive Cancer Centers of Nevada along with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and the Clark County Fire Department are proud to present the 2nd Annual Klip it for Kidz on March 13, 2010, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., at Town Square Las Vegas. This special event will benefit the Nevada Childhood Cancer Foundation's programs and services for critically ill children and their families living in Southern Nevada.

The event is free to the public and will include visits from local celebrities, live entertainment, food and drinks and will include exhibitions by METRO & CCFD. Professional hair stylists will shave heads and cut hair for all participants.

Please help me make this event a life changing experience for our kids who fight cancer & life threatening illnesses daily.

There are 2 easy ways to help:

- Join me and PRINT A PLEDGE FORM (www.nvccf.org – see attached) and get sponsored by friends, family, co-workers, classmates, teachers or a company to shave your head or to donate your hair to locks of love for cancer patients needing wigs (hair donations must be at least 10 inches in length)

OR

- Donate to my "Back to Bald" fundraising efforts. Simply call the Nevada Childhood Cancer Foundation at 702.735.8434 to pledge your donation (all donations are tax-deductible)

"Bald is Beautiful"
"Back to Bald"

$1,000 or greater
$500 to $999

“Somebody Get Me a Hat” $1 to $499

Thank you so much in advance for whatever help you may give...our children need you.
